EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Jonathan Thomas, Reg. No. 50,352, on November 19th, 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

17. (Currently Amended) An anode module for a liquid metal anode x-ray source, the anode module comprising:

an electron entry window formed on the anode module in a region of focus, and an x-ray beam exit window on a portion of the anode module opposite the electron entry window.

wherein the electron entry window is convexly curved perpendicular to a direction of flow of the liquid metal, and wherein an exit angle (Θ) between an electron beam that enters the electron entry window along a direction of incidence and an x-ray beam that exits the x-ray beam exit window is between 5° and 50°.

18. (Cancelled)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13, 16 and 17 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record neither teaches nor reasonably suggests an anode module for a liquid anode x-ray source with an electron entry window on the anode module in a region of focus and an x-ray beam exit window on a portion of the anode module opposite the electron entry window, where the exit angle between the electron beam that enters the electron entry window along a direction of incidence and the x-ray beam that exits the x-ray beam exit window is between 5° and 50°, as required by the combination as claimed in each of claims 1 and 17.

Claims 2-13 and 16 are allowed by virtue of their dependency.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
